Acknowledgement

In recent days, the demand for job-oriented education is increasing in our country. Professional education is being entrepreneurship-enabled education provides enlightenment, power, privilege, protection and prestige to the people in general and underprivileged groups in particular. Keeping these things in view, I have studied the role of professional education in the development of Scheduled Tribes in Dharwad District entitled with “Professional Education Among Scheduled Tribes : A Sociological study” and submitting the same to the Karnataka University, Dharwad for the award of Doctoral Degree in Sociology.

With profound sense of gratitude and ever lasting indebtedness, I offer my sincere thanks to my esteemed Guide Dr. Dushrath R. Albal, Reader and Local Head, Department of Studies and Research in Sociology, Karnataka University K.R.C.P.G. Centre, Belgaum, for his most valuable guidance and encouragement throughout the period of my research work, without his co-operation and suggestion, this work would not have been completed.
