I express with a deep sense of gratitude and with great pleasure my heartfelt thanks and indebtedness to my research supervisor, Dr. B.M. Swamy, Reader in Biochemistry, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for the encouragement, sustained interest and affection that I received throughout my research tenure as a research student. Indeed, I consider myself to be extremely fortunate to have come under the shelter of his scholastic arena, intellectual magnetism and awe-inspiring personality. His inexhaustible knowledge and unfailing support has helped me in the preparation of this thesis from its infancy to final stage.

I have absolutely no words to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. (Smt) Sashikala R. Inamdar, Reader in Biochemistry, Karnataka University, Dharwad, my teacher. I take this opportunity to pay my respectful regards to her for her kindness, constructive criticism and whole time co-operation. I was fortunate to work in her group and her everlasting interest, encouragement has enabled me to complete this task, I remain indebted to her.

I am grateful to Dr. Shrikant Kulkarni, Professor of plant pathology, University of Agricultural Sciences, Dharwad, for providing plant pathogenic fungus Rhizoctonia bataticola, and for useful discussion.

I thank Dr. M.V. Kulkarni, Professor, Department of Chemistry, Karnataka University, Dharwad, Dr. M.I. Khazi, Reader, Department of Chemistry, KU, for their constant support and valuable discussion.

I am grateful to Prof. Rudolf Geyer, Biochemisches Institut am Klinikum der Justus-Liebig-Universität Giessen, Germany, for having carried out sugar constituent and linkage analysis of RBL receptors.

I record my sincere thanks to Dr. G.S. Kumar, Professor and HOD of oral pathology S.D.M. Dental College, Dharwad and Dr. Vandana Raghunath, Prof and HOD, College of Dental Sciences, Davangere for their help in carrying out histochemical studies and valuable discussions. Thanks are also extended towards Dr. Umesh. Hallikar, Pathologist, The Karnataka Cancer Therapy and Research Institute, Navanagar, Hubli, for sparing his valuable time for discussion and interpretation of histochemical studies. I thank Dr. Sujata Naik, Karnataka Institute of Medical Sciences, Hubli and Dr. Geethanjali Mukherjee, KJDWAI, Bangalore for their help in getting tissues for the studies.
I thank the Chairman, Dr. H.Z. Ninnekar, my teachers Dr. S.B. Hinchigeri, Dr. (Smt) R.S. Bennur, Dr. B.G. Pujar, Dr. J.R. Gadag and Dr. H.S. Aparna, Department of Biochemistry, for their affection concern and encouragement during my research tenure.

I thank Shri Deshpande, Shri Sayyed, Shri Kadimath and other staff of USIC, KVD, for their help in using the facility. Thanks are also extended to non-teaching staff, Dept of Biochemistry for their timely help.

My sincere thanks to my senior researchers Dr. R. Naik and Dr. G.V. Hegde. I thank Dr. R.A. Gudikal, Dr. R.G. Bhat, IISc Bangalore, who have helped me during the critical stage of my work.

I am grateful to my research colleagues, Miss Anuradha G. Bhat, Mr. G.J. Satish, Mrs. C. Shubhada and Mr. Vishwanath B. Chachadi, for their constant help during my research career.

It is indeed a great pleasure to recall the memories of my friends who made my stay all these days a pleasant experience. I would express my heartfelt thanks to my friends, Kiran, Ramnarayan, Sunil, Umesh, Satish, Uday, Ajaz, Preeti, Veena, Neelgund, Harish, Raju, Srinivasulu, Prakash, Ashok, Rajesh, Dheeraj, Venu, Shanmukh, Shyam, Shivputra, Khazi, Shyam etc.

On the threshold of my success, only thing that remains for me is to be grateful to my parents whose blessings and sacrifices made this endeavour a reality for me. I am very much grateful to my parents Shri A. Palaniswamy and Smt P. Logambal my uncle Mr. A. Somasundaram and family. Among the many fine individuals who helped make this thesis possible, I would like to express my gratitude to the patience of my brothers Mr. P. Venkatesh, Mr. P. Prem Kumar, Mr. S. Arumugam, Mr. S. Balaji and to my wife Sujata.

Last but not the least, I would like to acknowledge almighty who has been inspiring me in each and every step of my life and finally, I remain indebted to all those who inspired me with love and affection.

DHARWAD
