DECLARATION

I certify that the edifice of this Thesis is built and further developed on the framework of extensive and critically focused literature survey with sources listed in the references.

I humbly submit that in the process of primary research, the conceptual underpinnings, research propositions, problem formulation, interpretations and analysis leading to major findings are mine and I, at the same time, accept the limitations if any.

I humbly believe that the results presented in the thesis and the recommendations made therein, contribute in general to advancement of knowledge regarding constriction laborers of unorganized sector’s and will contribute valuable knowledge regarding welfare of laborer and minimize their problems.

I certify and declare that the work incorporated in the present thesis is original and I have not been awarded or conferred any degree, diploma, or distinction of any kind, either by Bhavnagar University or any other University/ Institution for the work presented in this thesis.

Place: Bhavnagar

December, 2012

Nehal B. Trivedi