ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Any piece of research, being a co-operative venture, is difficult to be completed without the help of others. This study has also been possible through the kind co-operation of many a learned person and well-wisher. I deem it a great pleasure to acknowledge them here.

I owe a deep gratitude and heartfelt thanks to Dr. R.RadjaManogary, Associate Professor, Department of Management Studies, St.Joseph’s College of Engineering, Chennai-119, who has encouraged and guided me throughout my research work. I also express my gratefulness to my revered guide for her unmitigated support, meticulous reviews and advice on the work. It has added immense value to my research work.

Thanks are due to Dr. S.Ramanathan, Principal, Asan Memorial College for having permitting me to do Ph.D. as a part-time scholar.

I express my thanks to Dr. R.Ravanand, Associate Professor, Department of Statistics, Presidency College, for statistical applications of data collected.

Special thanks are due to Mr. Saiju.M.John, HOD, Meenakshi Sundararajan School of Management for his help and invaluable suggestions in all the stages of the thesis work.

I owe a debt of gratitude forever to my mother Mrs. B.Saraswathy for her consistent support and encouragement throughout the research work.

Iam beholden to my brother Mr. B.Janardhan for his consistent support and help to complete my work.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to all the scholars who have also helped me at various stages of the study.

Above all, I thank Almighty for the gracious blessings and giving me abundant strength to accomplish my doctoral research.
