ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my Supervising Teacher, Dr. K.P. Suresh, Associate Professor, School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam, for his constant encouragement, scholarly advice, never ending enthusiasm, incessant guidance, constructive criticism and support rendered during all the stages of the present study. The study would not have been possible without his help and suggestions and the encouraging words showered upon me in completing the study in the present format. It has been a privilege to me to work under his priceless guidance.

I express my profound thanks to Prof. (Dr.) T. V. Thulasidharan, Director, School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam for his support and the facilities of the Department made available to me during the final stage of the study. I take his opportunity to thank all other faculty members of the School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University who were helpful in every possible ways to complete this study.

I am very much obliged to Dr. T.V. Bindu, Assistant Professor, Institute of Advanced Study in Education, Thrissur for the sincere and whole hearted help offered to me during the research work.

I remember with deep sense of gratitude the help rendered by T.V. Dhanesh, Lecturer, Azikode Higher Secondary School, Vanulathvayal, Kannur during the collection of data.
I am thankful to the Headmasters, teachers and students of the various secondary schools for their whole hearted co-operation ensured in the collection of data.

I cannot forget my colleagues at Govt. Brennen College of Teacher Education, Thalassery, Kannur, who were supportive throughout the whole period of this study.

No words can express the love and affection of my parents who made the task easy.

I am also grateful to my in-laws for their understanding, encouragement and prayers offered to me in the completion of the work.

Words are inadequate to express my profound gratitude to my wife Dr. Sindhu. O. K and my daughters Ananya Arun. P and Avnita Arun. P for their love, moral support and encouragement showered upon me right from the embryonic stage of carrying out the present study.

Above all, I am thankful to the God Almighty, for his abounding grace showered on me in completing this study.
